

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Redline Championships Presents “Bring It On Comedy Tour” with Cheer Dad Jay Yoder

A Night of Laughter, Community, and Cheer Culture Like Never Before

[Amarillo, TX] - Redline Championships is excited to announce an exclusive, one-of-a-kind entertainment experience comedy tour for the Cheer and Dance community: “Bring It On Comedy Tour” featuring Cheer Dad Jay Yoder, a recognizable and relatable personality in the cheer and dance world who has become a fan favorite within the industry.

Known for his hilarious social media content, authentic storytelling, and unique perspective as a dedicated cheer parent, Jay Yoder has built a loyal following by shining a comedic spotlight on the everyday experiences of cheer and dance families. From competition weekends and practice schedules to parent life and team culture, Jay’s humor has connected with thousands across the industry.

“Bring It On Comedy Tour” will provide attendees with an unforgettable evening filled with laughter, connection, and celebration of the cheer and dance lifestyle. This comedy tour is designed for parents, coaches, gym owners, and industry professionals who understand the unique culture that makes the Cheer and Dance community so special.

“Jay has a remarkable ability to bring our industry together through humor,” said Kevin Jones, Production & Brand Strategy Director for Redline Championships. “Every cheer parent, coach, and athlete can relate to his stories. We’re excited to create an event that allows our community to laugh together and celebrate the experiences we all share.”

Attendees can expect:

- A live stand-up comedy performance by Cheer Dad Jay Yoder
- Interactive audience engagement
- Exclusive photo opportunities
- Special guest appearances
- A unique entertainment experience created specifically for the cheer and dance community

As Redline Championships continues to innovate and create memorable experiences beyond the competition floor, the “Bring It On Comedy Tour” represents another opportunity to strengthen community connections and celebrate the people who make the sport possible.

Additional event details, locations, ticket information, and special guest announcements will be released soon.

For updates and event information, follow Redline Championships on social media and visit

RedlineChampionships.com.

About Redline Championships

Redline Championships is a premier event producer in the Cheer and Dance industry, committed to creating high-energy competitions, unforgettable experiences, and innovative programs that celebrate athletes, coaches, and families across the country.

About Jay Yoder

Jay Yoder is a comedian, content creator, and cheer dad whose hilarious observations about life in the cheer world have made him a favorite among athletes, parents, and coaches nationwide. His relatable humor and energetic storytelling bring the unique experiences of the cheer community to life, creating laughs for anyone who has ever spent a weekend at a competition.

Media Contact

Kevin Jones, Production & Brand Strategy Director - Redline Championships

Email: kevin@redlinecheer.com

Website: redlinechampionships.com